DEDICATION

The Senior Class wishes to dedicate this 1963 Yearbook to Mr. Frank S. O'Brien who unselfishly gave of his time and talents to the education of the youth of Springfield in his chosen field of printing. His humble nature shone through in his giving with no thought of return. His humorous outlook on life steadied many an irrational student, yet on the other hand, many have found that he seldom says what he doesn't mean and that he backs his convictions with action. Many have returned, who have benefited from his good qualities and even sons of former students have learned what goodness means in an instructor. You might say that he now nears the twilight of his life in years, but his perpetual lively self makes one feel as if awakened to a day of glorious sunshine.

May we thank you Mr. O'Brien and wish that you have countless happy, healthy and wholesome days in your future with your lovely family and true friends.

President's Message

The time to say farewell has arrived. As we look back through the years spent at Trade High, we cannot adequately express our gratitude for the training we have received. We must thank our administration, our teachers and our counselors for working so hard with us. Without their guidance, friendship and understanding, we could not have secured a strong foundation for a successful future.

As a class, we are indebted to those of our members who have given unselfishly of their time and effort. Especially do I wish to thank the officers and committee members who have loyally assisted me in the execution of my duties as president. Their combined efforts and the leadership of our advisors have made this Senior Year of 1963 a "Year to Remember."

A very special word of thanks must go to the ones who have given the most — our parents. Without their love, understanding and encouragement, it would have been impossible for us to have spent these many years in school. Through their efforts we have been able to obtain the training needed to overcome the many problems which lie ahead.

Now comes the time when we must put to use the knowledge and skills which we have acquired. On the foundation we have received, we must build a successful and rewarding life. We know that in these troubled times this will not be easy. We realize that most serious problems now confront all mankind, and that if we, as Americans, wish to continue as free men, we must find ways to solve these problems. We must continue to learn from the lessons of the past; we must work to fill the demands of the present; and we must dedicate ourselves to the challenge of a worthy future.

Class History

The Class of 1963 entered Springfield Trade High School in September of 1960 filled with anticipation and eagerness. We found many interested members of the faculty and student body who were glad to help and encourage us as we prepared for three years of industrious work. The vast and beautiful building filled us with awe, and some of us became lost as we made our way through the many well equipped shops and laboratories. We were greatly impressed by the magnificently presented Student Association assembly, which displayed graphically the many activities in which we would be privileged to participate during our exciting stay at Trade High. We soon became members of the co-operative Trade High School family, participating efficiently in all school activities. Mr. James J. Fitzgibbons, our sponsor, supervised our class election of the officers for our Junior year, and soon June brought to a close our first year at Trade High School.

We were happy to return in September, 1961. A feeling of contentment surged through us as we walked through the familiar corridors and greeted our faculty friends and class members. We soon organized as the Junior Class under the leadership of Mr. John J. Fortsch, with the following officers:

President, Milton Kidder
Vice President, Robert Genander
Secretary, Laurie Hoyt
Treasurer, Jamie Bisceglia
Marshals, Sandra Osgood, Edward Aldrich

This competent group was aided by a large number of hard working members of the Steering Committee. Our first dance was a great success, and constituted an innovation, because square dancing was featured. We sold candy at Christmas as a class fund-raising project, and the Senior Class assisted our treasury with their sale of St. Patrick's Day favors.

Our Junior year was most notable in the history of Springfield Trade High School because it marked the Golden Anniversary of Vocational Education in Springfield. We made plans under the direction of Mr. Garvey, our principal, to honor the person responsible for the construction of our present beautiful school. It was decided that an oil painting of the Honorable Roger L. Putnam, Mayor of Springfield at the time our outstanding school plant was constructed, should be presented to him as a tribute and indication of our esteem. The annual Trade High School Open House, when our magnificent physical plant is opened for public inspection, and hundreds of interested citizens stream through our portals to admire the outstanding exhibits of work accomplished during the year, was chosen as the occasion for this presentation. The Auditorium was filled to capacity, and the platform guests included many dignitaries. Mr. Garvey gave a talk outlining former Mayor Putnam's contributions to Vocational Education in Springfield, and the presentation of the oil portrait to Mr. Putnam was made by two members of our class, Miss Sheila Peabody and Alfred Ingham.

Class History

Numerous activities in preparation for our Senior year occupied our attention as the year drew to a close. Class rings arrived, Senior hats were ordered, and many of us participated in graduation as members of the Glee Club or usherettes at the Auditorium.

As Seniors, we became a united group, eager to advance the interests of Trade High School and provide the most interesting, profitable and enjoyable year of our educational careers. We profited by the capable guidance of our Senior advisors: Mr. John J. Fortsch and Mrs. Virginia Simes, aided by the following assistant advisors: Mrs. Sylvia Bernstein, Mr. Alfred Magee, Mr. Daniel Meder, Miss Marguerite Murphy, Mrs. Helen Potter, and Mr. Ulysses Sousa. Among the items which occupied our attention were senior pictures, class ballot, prophecy, will, personal data for the Trade High Beaver, and preliminary plans for the big social event of the year — the Senior Banquet and Promenade.

Our Senior officers provided capable leadership:

President — Peter Maloni

Vice President — Dennis Matulewicz

Secretary — Sheila Peabody

Treasurer — Jamie Bisceglia

Marshals — Sandra Osgood, Joseph Galarneau

We sponsored the Senior Rope Pull, which we won, and a "Get Acquainted Hop" which was the first social event of the school year. Before too long it was time for the Senior Luncheon, which was greatly enjoyed by all of our class. All too soon came the Senior Class Promenade and Banquet, which provided a most enjoyable and outstanding event for all. The Shaker Farms Country Club was decorated beautifully, the dinner was delicious, and the music helped to provide memorable moments.

Early in May, Class Day arrived; an interesting assembly program was produced for the entire school, followed by planting of the Ivy, picture taking and many group picnics. After this, many left school to take advantage of our excellent vocational training by securing early career placement.

The happy culmination of our three wonderful years at Trade High School came on Monday, June tenth, when we assembled at our Municipal Auditorium for the Graduation Ceremony of the Class of 1963. As we marched across the Auditorium platform to receive our precious diplomas, we all realized that our scholastic efforts had been successful, and we seriously contemplated the future. We were happy because of our accomplishments, grateful to our administration, faculty friends, and sponsors, and eager to assume our places in the world of work. Our thanks and best wishes to all our friends at Trade High School!

— Sheila Peabody

Class Poem

To every Student
His Fortune is his trade;
On this foundation
All his future must be laid.
As a beginning,
A sound start we have made.
After Commencement,
Ambition must not fade.

Of all our friendships,
Memories will ever stay
To teachers and to counselors,
A tribute now we pay.
With renewed inspiration,
We will strive each single day.
To parents and to Trade High —
Thanks, for showing us the way.

— By Michael Wojcik

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Springfield Trade High School, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

We hereby bequeath to the members of the administrative staff and faculty of the Springfield Trade High School our sincere appreciation and gratitude for their efforts in our behalf.

To Mr. Edmond P. Garvey, our Director, our heartfelt thanks for his continuing successful efforts to enhance our reputation as the outstanding Vocational Institute on the Eastern seaboard, and for his ability to obtain such marvelous improvements as the new building wing now under construction, the renowned IBM Data Processing Institute, the former Municipal Isolation Hospital as a unit of our post graduate Medical Services program, and the many post high opportunities which will afford us the opportunity to continue our vocational training after graduation. We also bequeath to him our gratitude for his very wonderful success in securing action by the Massachusetts State Legislature on the bill to have an associate degree granted by our Post Graduate Division.

To Mrs. Teresina Thompson, Assistant Principal, our Director of the Girls' Division, our sincere thanks for her very efficient, friendly and helpful management of the affairs of the Girls' Department. Also, our sincere appreciation for doing such a superb job in developing the Post Graduate program for girls that our graduates may pursue their vocational training in Medical Assisting, Dental Assisting, Surgical Technician, Medical Laboratory Assisting, Beauty Culture or Practical Nursing with a preferred status.

To Mr. Dennis Brunton, our Assistant Principal, our thanks for his ability

We leave thanks and best wishes to our sponsors, Mr. Fortsch and Mrs. Simes for their aid and assistance during our happy years at Trade High School.

We also wish to leave thanks and best wishes to our associate senior sponsors Mrs. Sylvia Bernstein, Mr. Daniel Meder, Miss Marguerite Murphy, Mrs. Helen Potter and Mr. Ulysses Souza.

Last, but far from least, we bequeath our sincere appreciation to Massachusetts Commissioner of Education Dr. Owen B. Kiernan, State Director of Vocational Education Walter B. Markham, Springfield Superintendent of Schools Dr. Joseph P. McCook and the Springfield School Committee for their continued helpful activities in behalf of Springfield Trade High School and more particularly, our own Senior Class.

This Will and Testament is hereby declared to be the free and exact expression of the intent of the members of the Class of 1963 as we strive to reward in some small measure the efforts of those who merit our appreciation.

To our Guidance Counselors, Mrs. Triggs, Mr. Pellegrini, and Mr. Stanton, we bequeath sincere thanks for their patience and their diligent guidance of our efforts.

to maintain a smooth running organization, and our best wishes for his continued good health and happiness.

Signed and sealed this 9th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and sixty-three, in the city of Springfield, County of Hampden, Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

First Codicil to Class Will and Testament of Senior Class of 1963

The following Codicil is hereby attached to and made a part of the previously named Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1963 to augment the general bequests heretofore stated.

The following individual bequests are made by various members of said Senior Class of 1963, specifically as follows:

The members of the Trade High School Seniors Who Drive Cars Club hereby bequeath and devise to next year's Seniors their right and vested interest in the parking area at the rear of the Municipal Hospital (off Blunt Park Road). We also bequeath the right to petition for some trap rock and hot mix to overcome the devastation of the Spring showers on the area.

Sandra Osgood and Isla-May Nadeau bequeath to next year's Foods and Catering Seniors the ability to win the Sterling Silver Paul Revere Bowl which denotes first prize in the city-wide table setting contest.

Brenda Vincensi leaves to next year's Seniors in Beauty Culture the best of luck in finding a job and succeeding in what they start out to do.

The Senior girls of Needle Trades bequeath to the Needle Trades class of '64" all our ambition, intelligence, integrity, skill, ability, thoughtfulness, seriousness of our purpose, and last but not least, peacefulness. Good luck in the future.

Allyn Mathuson leaves to next year's class the right to do everything efficiently in shop as he did.

Carol Fountaine does hereby leave to some nice Junior girl her gym suit, so she has no excuse for missing gym.

George Chaples does hereby will to Jimmy O'Connor and Steve Broudar, the will to succeed in Machine Shop. Work hard boys, it's worth it.

The Swimming Team leaves to Mr. Macaris best wishes for a winning team next year.

Frances Thibodeau hereby leaves Miss Bawn her knowledge of Math.

Andre Brouillard leaves to Mr. Clough congratulations because his bowling team became city wide winners for the third time and thus secured permanent possession of the Bowling Trophy.

Roberta Guyette leaves to Miss Musgrove some new typewriters.

Ed Anderson leaves to Fred Duchette the bottom shelf of his locker and hopes he will keep it in good condition for future use.

Carolyn Lambert leaves to Mrs. Bayette her brain for research for hidden pebbles.

Edward Aldrich leaves to Danny Althas one used pencil, one 45° angle, one piece of used tape and the ability to go down to first lunch.

Joseph Blais leaves to Roger Gove the right to roam the halls on the third floor at any time after school.

Joseph Galarneau does hereby bequeath to Jimmy Dicchico his post by the telephone booth on the third floor and his fond memories of things to come from Mr. Souza, and his bashfulness with the young ladies.

Al Ingham, Lee Roberts, Alan Theaume of Foods and Bakery do hereby bequeath to the boys of next year's class the right to roam the third floor, and to star on all the major athletic teams.

Klaus Feuerstein does hereby bequeath to Eugene Glasunow one broken down drafting stool, a used sea bag and a used Sea Scout uniform.

Dorothy Tyrell leaves to the new traffic girls her traffic post, which gives a fine view of all the boys on the first and second floors.

Randall Sassi of Radio Shop leaves to Spencer all the tools he borrowed, because it's an even exchange.

Class Will

Taft Meeks leaves Kingley Spencer the ability to secure clear TV pictures and detect trouble spots in the world of outer space.

John Lonard leaves to Mr. Berwick some new books for his classes and to Earl his locker with all his old gym stuff. He will have permission to go to Burger Chef any time he wants.

Milton Kidder, Jr. wills to Mr. Craven a free period for his coffee break.

Bob Mucha does hereby bequeath to Pete Defocie one box of birdseed for his Thunderbird. He also gives him his privilege of going downtown to cruise the main drag.

H. Dowler leaves to Mr. Kosior a mouse that was caught in the Electric Dept.; at least the mouse might be able to play Basketball.

The Foods and Catering Seniors give their thanks to Miss Gilson for her kind understanding of them during their training.

Peter Maloni leaves to the president of next year's Senior Class the patience and perseverance necessary to conduct the class affairs successfully.

Klaus Feuerstein leaves to the president of next year's Student Council, boundless enthusiasm and energy, necessary to conduct a successful program of student leadership.

Incorporated as part of our Last Will and Testament and attested to by the Committee on the Will.

Al Ingham, Chairman
1963 Class Will Committee

Class Song

(Tune: Moment to Remember)

Our high school days have all gone by,
And future years before us lie;
We are leaving Trade High School forever.

The mem'ries of our high school days
Remain within our hearts always;
We are leaving Trade High School forever.

Our teachers and our classmates
Who have always been so near.
The laughter we were glad to share
We'll remember through the years.

Farewell dear Trade, and goodbye friends,
Our high school days are at an end;
We are leaving Trade High School forever.

— Peggy Lyons and Sandra Osgood

Class Prophecy

We, the Class of 1963, realize that we graduate into a world that offers to us a tremendous challenge. What with the Berlin situation, the Cuban crisis, the tax reform hullabaloo, the race for nuclear supremacy, the adoption of automation and the conquest of space, we are faced with a multitude of problems. We subscribe to the theory that if we solve one of these, we may find the formula for the solution of all. Following in the footsteps of great men like John Glenn and Scott Carpenter, we have chosen SPACE as our problem to solve and have set our sights on its conquest by the year 2000 — the turn of the new century.

How will we succeed? Our prophecy today reveals the answers. Through the prophetic eyes of automation we can safely predict our conquest of space. Information has already been relayed to the I. B. M. headquarters at Trade High School. The statistics have been compiled, the program fed into the machines, the analysts have tabulated the results, and the rest is history recorded in the files of I. B. M. cards. Here is the report as issued through our I. B. M. headquarters at Trade High School.

From standard cards such as these:

Some of the members of the class have not yet sent in reports. Others came in so late that the I.B.M. machine had to reject them. Others had some of the information missing and the machine refused to process them.

We do know that among the questions asked the members were many that showed that they still had an interest in good old Trade High. Here are a few of the questions that were relayed to Trade in the year 2000.

Did Miss Gilson ever get her tea room painted and redecorated?

Did Mr. Ross ever receive that CARE package of stripeless neckties with socks to match?

Did Mr. Macaris and Mr. Kosior ever succeed in getting their space ship off the ground? Last we heard they were going to jettison the food supplies to reduce the weight.

Well, we have gone on and on and we could continue. Outer space has no limits, but these pages DO and so we say:—

Congratulations to the class of 1963. You have proven your worth. You have conquered space. You may have left to the world all the rest of the problems for succeeding classes to solve, but at least you solved yours; and we don't blame you for just staying up there in your own little orbit. But don't forget to come down and see us once in a while. We on earth want to exchange ideas. You can tell us your dreams and we'll tell you ours.

TRADE FOOTBALL

Trade enjoyed one of the finest seasons in its football history, marred only by its last minute loss to Enfield. Trade's first victory over Pittsfield since relations started eight years ago, ended a twenty-five game winning streak for Pittsfield, spanning a three year period. Trade also avenged a 52-0 defeat from Worcester Classical the previous year by defeating Classical 24-12. Many new faces in Trade's lineup were due to last year's graduation. The team played with great spirit and enthusiasm as a unified group and for their outstanding record the varsity was awarded chenille T's by the School Committee. Louis Archambault, Alvin Jones and Allan Rheame gained All City and Western Mass. recognition.

TRADE HIGH BASKETBALL SEASON OF 1962 - 1963

On November 15, 1962, Coach Ed Kosior and Assistant Coach Dick Van Heynigen issued a call for basketball candidates. Thirty-eight players responded in preparation for a schedule that included independent games with Adams, Hopkins Academy, Worcester Classical, Enfield, Drury and Chicopee Comprehensive, in addition to the Inter-School games.

Trade High School was honored on two occasions. Chicopee Comprehensive, a new high school, played its first Varsity game against the Trade Beavers. Enfield High School requested that the Trade Team help dedicate the modern gym in Enfield, Connecticut on January 3, 1963.

During the basketball season many interesting games were played. Victories were recorded over Tech, Adams, Classical, Worcester Classical, Chicopee Comprehensive (2), Enfield and Alumni. The final record was 8 wins and 11 losses, 5 of the losses occurred in the final minutes. The Beavers had Commerce, Cathedral, Adams, Tech and Drury destined for defeats but allowed them victories in the final minutes.

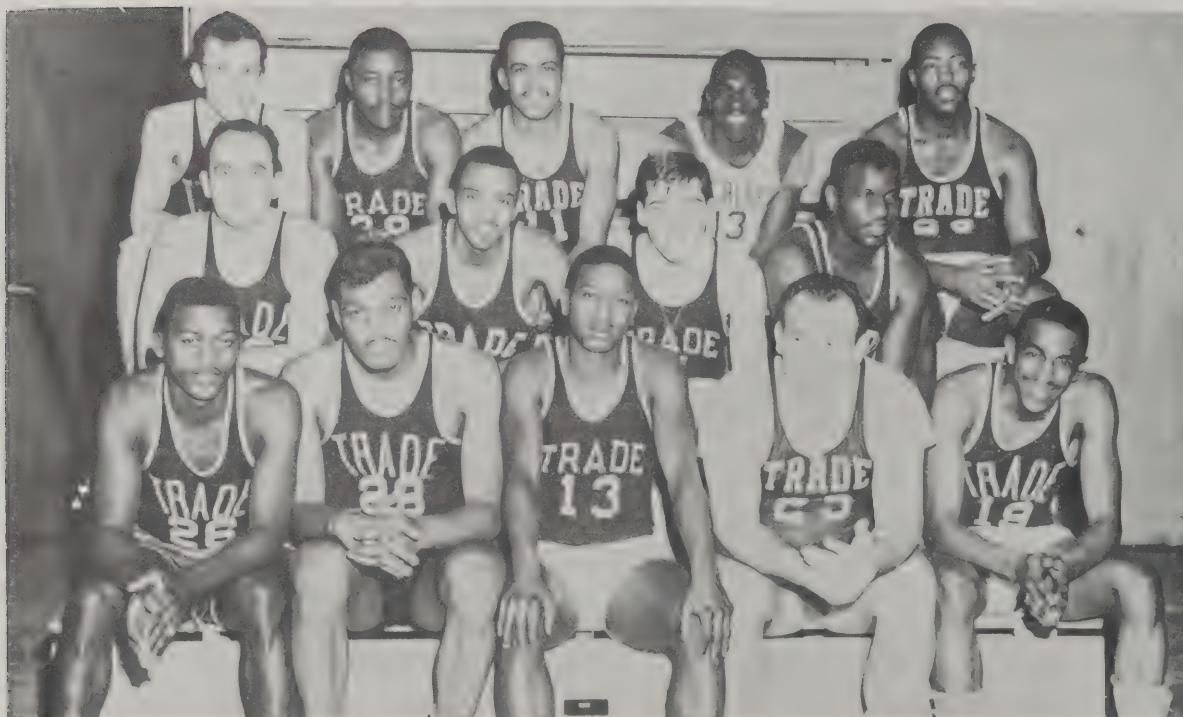

Captain Dave Kenney, an All-City selection, sparked the Beavers during the entire year. He was the 16th leading scorer in Western Massachusetts, averaging 17.2 points per game. Speedy Al Jones and Sure-shot Jim Bailey were the forwards. Bouncing Ben Hamilton was the center. Dave Kenney and Ace-rebounder Gary Ingham were the guards. Good-guard Pete Maloni started many ball games. Reliable Curt Wilkerson and Dependable Buzzie Weldon filled in on numerous occasions. Robert Morin was a three-year veteran at the Scorer's table. The manager of the team was Richard Villemure.

Basketball Squad

Alumni Basketball Greats

Basketball

Track

Wrestling

In the short three year history of wrestling at Trade High School, this year's team, composed of mostly tenth graders, established their best record. In the city championships Trade placed two boys in the finals — Jack Joao, 103 pound class, and Robert Beaulieu, 154 pounder. Both boys were defeated in the finals for the city championships in their class by close decisions. Trade's team losses came at the hands of veteran studded Tech and Cathedral teams. Next year's squad should make a very worthwhile showing.
